Cohen's masterful storytelling draws us into a world where the lines between reality and the supernatural blur. The characters that inhabit the Grand Imperial are as complex as they are haunting, each carrying their own burdens and secrets. The staff, with their enigmatic smiles and unsettling gazes, add an eerie layer to the hotel's atmosphere.

As Oona's curiosity transforms into an obsession, she becomes entangled in a dangerous game. The hotel's dark history seeps into her dreams, blurring the boundaries between sleep and wakefulness. Visions of tormented souls and unexplainable occurrences plague her mind, threatening to unravel her sanity.

"No Vacancy" is a literary triumph that transcends the boundaries of the horror genre.
