The story centers around three unforgettable characters: Moth, a young woman with a mysterious past; Blue, a goat with a unique ability to absorb memories; and Lol, a wild child who possesses an uncanny connection to the natural world.

Together, this unlikely trio embarks on a perilous quest into the untamed wilderness, where they encounter dangerous creatures, uncover ancient secrets, and confront their own inner demons. As they navigate treacherous landscapes and face formidable challenges, their bonds are tested to the limit.

Hardinge's captivating prose paints vivid pictures of fantastical worlds, from lush forests to ethereal mountains. The characters she creates are complex and relatable, each with their own unique motivations and struggles.

Through their journey, they explore themes of identity, belonging, and the transformative power of human connection.
