A Cornucopia of Thanksgiving Humor

Kick off the festivities with a barrage of rib-tickling jokes that will have everyone around the table in stitches. From the hilarious to the downright corny, there's a joke for every taste:

- What do you call a turkey that can't stop telling jokes? A fowl comedian!
- Why are turkeys so bad at playing hide-and-seek? Because they're always getting stuffed!

- What do you get when you cross a turkey with a snowman? A gobblehead!

Puzzling Riddles to Keep You Guessing

Challenge your brain with a selection of riddles that will test your wit and vocabulary. Rack your minds and see who can solve them first:

- I have a neck without a head, a back without a spine, and four legs without feet. What am I? (A chair)

- I am a bird that can't fly, but I can swim and dive. What am I? (A penguin)

- I have keys, but no locks. I have a space, but no room. You can enter, but can't go outside. What am I? (A keyboard)

Brain-Teasing Challenges for the Sharpest Minds

Put your cognitive abilities to the test with our collection of brain-bending puzzles that will leave you scratching your head in delight:

- Two fathers and two sons go fishing. They catch three fish, but each only eats one fish. How is this possible? (They are grandfather, father, and son)

- A farmer has 12 sheep. All but 9 die. How many sheep does the farmer have left? (9)

- You are in a dark room with a box of matches, a kerosene lamp, a candle, and a wood-burning stove. Which one do you light first? (The match)
